

Kentucky Job Corps centers educate and train 3,255 youth every year.

Job Corps has a Zero-Tolerance Policy for drugs and alcohol.

There are seven Kentucky Job Corps centers.

Job Corps provides training and education for young people ages 16 through 24.

Students can earn a high school diploma or GED.

Students are trained in many occupational fields.

Graduates are motivated, career-minded
and ready to work.

At Job Corps, social and workplace skills are important components of job training.

Join these Job Corps employer partners and learn why Job Corps is a valuable source of skilled employees...

AAMCO

American Fence Association

HCR ManorCare

Jiffy Lube/Pennzoil/Quaker State

Penske Auto Centers

Roadway Express

Roto-Rooter

Sears, Roebuck & Company

U.S. Army

Walgreen Company

Job Corps... Training Kentucky Youth For Kentucky Jobs

JOB CORPS www.jobcorpsregion2.com
Success lasts a lifetime <http://jobcorps.doleta.gov>

Job Corps is a federal government program for youth, administered by the U.S. Department of Labor/Employment and Training Administration.

Job Corps is a U.S. Department of Labor Equal Opportunity Employer Program.
Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TDD/TTY telephone number (800) 733-JOBS.

Document available in accessible format upon request. Call (615) 259-4000, Ext. PA, for more information.

What is Job Corps?

Job Corps is a federally funded job training program for young adults. Job Corps was established in 1964, and today there are more than 118 centers nationwide dedicated to preparing an educated and skilled workforce.

Students at Kentucky Job Corps centers receive academic and vocational training. In addition, they are taught employability skills that will benefit you, the employer.

"We are proud to partner with Job Corps. The students get hands-on training at Coca-Cola, and we get experienced entry-level workers."

—Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc.
Clay City, Ky.
School-to-Work Partner

What can Job Corps do for you?

- Job Corps provides on-center training tailored to meet the needs of your company.
- Job Corps ensures that federal money spent on training Kentucky youth benefits Kentucky businesses.
- Hiring Job Corps students makes your company eligible for tax credits and incentives.
- Job Corps trains entry-level employees with the work ethic you want and the skills you need.

Look closely... everyone pictured in this brochure is an actual Job Corps student, graduate or instructor.

JOB CORPS

Success lasts a lifetime